Welcome, Autumn!

Welcoming Prayer

Song: All Good Gifts

Readings: Genesis 1: 1-4 * Genesis 9:31 * Isaiah 48:13 * Psalm
19: 2-5 * John 1: 1-5

Our response: Psalm 24

(from Creation Friendly Psalms adapted by Carol Kleba, SSND)

Yours is the earth and its fullness,
the world and all who dwell there;
You have caused the seas and established the rivers.
Your joy was in seeing your creatures evolve.

Who shall climb your mountains, O God?
Who shall stand in your holy presence?
Those with open hands and loving hearts,
who do not desire what is selfish or vain,
who try to be at one with all creation.

They shall receive blessings
from the One Who Loves All,
and sustaining life from the One who created us.
such are the ones who seek after the Holy One.
who seek the face of the God of all creation.

O, soul, lift up your eyes,
See deeper, seek for wisdom.
The God within all can be seen.
Who is this God within all?
the one who is benevolent
and sustaining in all situations.

O, soul, lift up your eyes,
See deeper, seek for wisdom.
The God within all can be seen.

Who is this God within all?
You, the God of the cosmos,
You, O God, are the God of glory.

Reading: “Becoming Wonder” by K. Lauren de Boer

Candle Lighting: How have you “become wonder” recently? Or What wonder do you want to “pull off the shelf”?

Sign of Peace

A Ritual Sharing in Communion of Autumn’s Fruit

Closing Prayer:

As the hours of daylight shorten,
we give thanks that you are a luminous and loving God.
As the light of the sun-star warms this planet
May we give warmth and light to all we meet.
May we see your holiness in the golden beauty of each day,
Especially in this autumn season.
May we touch with reverence all things,
O Sacred Source of Life.
